

Supplementary Fig. 2. No significant change of relative risks (RRs) after 2 years of follow-up in sensitivity analyses. The RRs were consistent with the findings of the primary meta-analysis. The RR was 1.57 when excluding two studies that controlled antiseizure medication (ASM) use (A), and 1.56 when excluding two studies that controlled remote symptomatic cases (B).