S1 Fig. Baujat's plot to identify studies that potentially contribute to heterogeneity, and influence the overall results, more than the others in the meta-analysis of studies reporting proportion of COVID-19 patients having active tuberculosis. Each circle represents an individual study, and those contributing more to heterogeneity are marked in red.