S4 Fig. Sensitivity analysis of the impact of comorbid tuberculosis on COVID-19 outcomes through the leave-one-study-out approach. Individual summary estimates after removing a single study from meta-analysis are depicted by solid squares, and corresponding 95% confidence intervals by horizontal lines. The vertical lines represent the summary estimate with all studies included, and the shaded area represents the corresponding 95% confidence intervals.