Supplement Material 3

Description of stigma manifestations towards LAPs in Indonesia

Enacted
Avoidance[2, 8, 22–27, 29, 30, 32, 33, 35, 37, 41, 45, 46, 48]
Rejection in greetings, handshake or physical touch[8, 26–28, 30, 37, 41, 52]
Reluctance to talk[23, 42, 47]
Absences of invitations to gatherings[28, 40–42]
Restriction to participate[2]
Negative comment, gossip, or mock[22, 23, 28, 30, 31, 33, 44, 48, 51, 53, 55]
Spitting on property and nose was covered[26]
Covering nose[26]
Starring[23]
Rejection to live in the same neighbourhood[38]
Expulsion[45, 47]
Unfair treatment due to social background[43, 53]
Recitation of a specific prayer to reject transmission[46]
Rejection to marry or to build romantic partner[27–29, 34, 40, 44, 46]
Acceptance and giving suggestion to divorce[33, 40]
Prohibition of touching family member[32]
Concealment of diagnosis by family members[37, 45]
The view as a family disgrace[22]
Family rejection even though has been cured[34]
Command not to take a bath[27]
Utensils, clothes, bed separation[45]
Suggestion to leave the house[24]
Shortage of job[30, 42, 44, 51]
Rejection from job[2]
Alienation at work[23, 33]
Suspension to work[36]
Dismissal from work[8, 22]
Refusal to be in the same body of water (e.g. river, water at rice field) [8, 28]
Rejection or hesitation to buy items sold by LAP[8, 28, 32, 35, 51]
Hesitation, rejection to help, or delayed treatment from healthcare provider[27, 30, 55]
Hurtful comments at school[8, 31, 32, 51]
Physical distance[33, 37, 44, 45, 47]
Absence of transportation at the residential area where LAP lived[28]
Rejection at the market[29]
Rejection from public transportation driver and passengers[26, 44, 45]
Anticipated
Fear of avoidance[8, 9, 23, 33, 35, 44, 49, 51, 53]
Fear of insults, humiliation, or negative comments[2, 8, 9, 23, 40, 49]
Fear people would reject to meet[9, 28, 33]
Fear of infecting others[24, 30]
Worry people will notice or suspect something wrong[9, 33, 44, 45]
Fear if interactions will make people will feel offended[26]
Worry the deceased body of LAP would not be buried at the public cemetery[29]
Fear family members will afraid of the disease[52]
Fear to be excluded by the family and neighbours[37, 44, 52]
Worry of being rejected to take care of family[9, 33]
Fear romantic partner will leave[30]
Fear difficulty to have a romantic partner[30]
Internalized
Feeling ashamed of self[8, 22, 23, 27, 28, 31, 33, 37, 48, 54, 55]
Seeing self as an abnormal or different[2, 28, 40, 54]
Seeing self as dirty, ugly, disgusting, unclean[26, 28, 29, 30, 33]
Seeing self as an eternal-patient, will not be healed or normal[2, 8, 26, 29, 32, 49, 50, 53]
Seeing self as a danger for other[33]
Feeling no one want to marry[28]
Seeing self a poor person and fit to be a beggar[50]
Seeing self as a family troublemaker or burden[32, 40, 54]
Seeing self as an object of charity[2, 28, 40]
Seeing self as having a dangerous disease[50]
Seeing a stamp of ‘leprosy’ at self[26]
Feeling inferior[8, 43]
Feeling people will not be friendly anymore[8]
Feeling as a cursed person even after cured[34]
Feeling unworthy[34]
Feeling will not be able to get a job or work again[26, 31]
Feeling people are afraid of self[26]