Supplement Material 5

Description of stigma consequences on LAPs in Indonesia

Social behaviour
Self-isolation[8,9,23,24,27,28,30,32,33,36,44,48,49,51]
Avoiding new people, home visits, and social activities[8,26,27,32,33,41,44]
Apathy to others[4]
Hiding activities from family members[35]
Difficulty to marry, build romantic relationship or friendship[2,26,29,34,40]
Estranged or damaged relationship with significant others[8,30,32,34]
Being passive at home[2,27,33,49]
Changing place to live[22,26,24,31,34,43,51]
Hiding face or body parts when going outside[28,31,33,44]
Loss of social image[37]
Limited inter-island movement[38]
Being used for political and economic purpose[38,43]
Psychological
Sadness[8,22,23,26-28,32-34,49,51,52]
Frustration[8,26,27,31,33,34,49,51,52]
Despair[8,27,33]
Guilt[40,54]
Felling lonely[2,24,32,33]
Feeling unsafe[44]
Anger or easy to be irritated[34,36]
Inability to be angry[28]
Pessimism[8,22,33,49,53]
Loss of self-confidence[27,33,41]
Feeling unfulfilled[34]
Feeling useless[28]
Being ashamed of self (for a long time period)[8,26,35,42,43,51,54]
Self-disappointment[28,33,51]
Spiritual distress (e.g. questioning God or stopping routine religious activity)[27,34]
Loss of passion to live[30,34,35,49]
Suicidal thinking[8,9,24,26,28,29,33,44,49]
Suicidal attempt[49]
Occupational/financial
Resigning from work[2,8,23]
Difficulty to find job[2,30,31,42]
Losing customer[8,35,51]
Preference to work at night[26]
Feeling shy to find a proper job[22,31]
Weak financial condition[30,32,43]
Dependent on aid to sustain life (e.g. becoming a beggar or leaning on aid)[22,30,43,50]
Health
Concealing, lying or denying the diagnoses[2,8,9,23,30,32,33,37,44,50,52]
Avoiding healthcare facility or provider[8,28,37,38,44,45,49,50,55]
Abandoning the sign of leprosy[45,49]
Seeking treatment secretly[45]
Seeking traditional healer[37,45]
Medication noncompliance[37,45]
Lack of family support in treatment[45]
Absence in health education[50]
Unhygienic practice of self-care[27]
Worsening disease[36,37,55]
Weakened physical health[36,49]
Excessive use of drugs[51]
Neglecting general health[50]
Self-mutilation[9]
Education
Stop attending school[8,28,30-33,51]
Difficulty to access school bus[28]
Having teacher who refuses to live on the same island with the students[38]